DEDICATION

The modern world of today is made up of people of many races, nationalities, and creeds. Asians, Europeans, Africans, and Americans live, work, and play together in what we know as peace.

Just as He taught us that men are all equal under His loving guidance, let this peace and equality be supreme forever.

In the hopes that the many people of our busy world may always remember this equality, we dedicate our book, the '60 Muhltohi, to peace among all men.

FOREWORD

We, of the '60 yearbook staff, have worked steadily for many months to produce this volume of the Muhltohi.

Within these pages are recorded treasured memories of our journey through high school. The glimpses we have caught here and there represent fond happenings and memorable activities we have shared.

In later years, while turning these pages, if you should recall the many smiles, sorrows, and dreams of '60, we shall be content, knowing that we have done the thing we were called upon to do.

ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent of Muhlenberg School District, Mr. John W. Khouri.

Mr. Khouri stands before the white pillars of M.T.H.S.

SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. Khouri was often seen flying by with a smile on his face, in a whirl of important papers. He seemed always busy, but was never too rushed to stop and chat with students or offer his sound advice in any situation. His responsibilities were heavy as he assisted the school board in the formidable task of keeping the educational machinery well-oiled. Competently he served us and guided our way.

Rushing from one place to another, our superintendent is photographed on the parking lot.

Typical of a day's work, Mr. Khouri engages in an important conversation on the telephone.

FUNCTIONING PROPERLY

PRINCIPAL

Mr. Schmehl performed many duties, pleasant and unpleasant, presenting awards, approving school projects, and attending school functions gave him pleasure. But he also held the reins of disciplinary problems, and visited classrooms where there were unwholesome situations. Mr. Schmehl has been a major help to many students throughout their school experience.

Mr. Schmehl stops at the library to look up information for reference

Principal of Muhlenberg Township High School, Mr. Kermit H. Schmehl

In his office, he daily receives many visits from students with questions and problems

Mr. Strittmatter watches as three juniors buy candy in the cafeteria

Mr. Carl Strittmatter, as assistant principal.

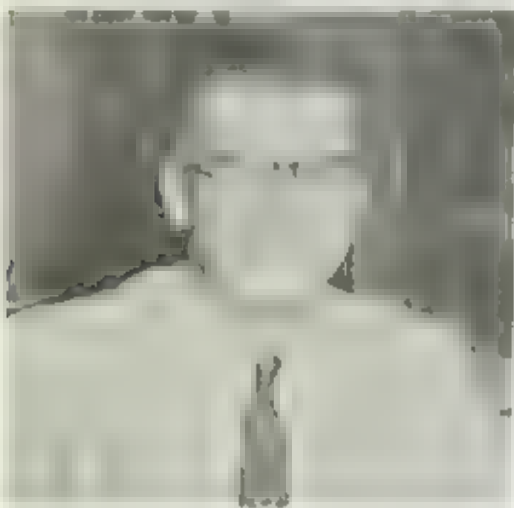

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

Mr. Carl Strittmatter, assistant principal at Muhlenberg, also has many duties. Besides aiding Mr. Schmehl in everyday problems, he plays a big part in the discipline of students. Mr. Strittmatter was seen this year at lunchtime as he served as proctor of the cafeteria and dismissed students from tables.

MOST OF THEIR WORK WAS UNSEEN

SEATED (clockwise): Mr. Gerald D. Schaeffer, vice president; Mr. Charles Trout; Mr. Daniel G. Rothermel, solicitor; Mr. Edward L. H. Smith; Mr. Harry F. Ammarell, president; Mr. George F. Adam; STANDING: Mr. John L. Phillips; Mr. Matthew A. Rotherbach, treasurer; Mr. John W. Khouri, superintendent

President - MR. HARRY F. AMMARELL

The School Board consists of seven men, plus a solicitor and Mr. Khouri, who meet once a month to question, debate, and decide issues of necessity to the school. They met on weeknights, giving up time and effort for Muhlenberg.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

THEIR DECISIONS WERE BULWARKS

SECRETARIES

Superintendent's Secretary,
MRS. CLARA OXENRIEDER

Office Secretaries, Mrs. Anita Reinert, Mrs. Virginia Stephen, Mrs. Ethel Shaner, and Mrs. Marie Sweigert.

The office had a staff of competent secretaries. In addition to their regular duties they were kept busy writing pass slips, for answering students' questions, helping us acquire information we needed for newspaper stories, assignments, or special projects. There was never a dull moment in the office as their typewriters clacked away and they responded to our every request.

MUHLENBERG TOWNSHIP AUTHORITY

The Muhlenberg Township authority is a group of men who advised the school on all financial matters throughout the year. Working during week nights, they were a very important help to the school board. They receive little credit for the good work they have done.

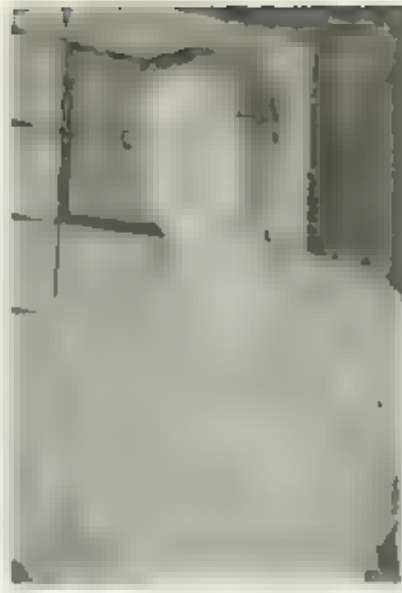

Left to right: Mr. John D. Fox, treasurer; Mr. W. Laurer Huyett, member; Mr. Chester M. Fies, secretary; Mr. Arthur C. Melick, vice-president; Mr. Lester G. Kauffman, president; and Mr. Daniel G. Rothermal, solicitor.

ATTENDANCE OFFICER

MR. RAYMOND ENDY

Another "unsung hero" is our attendance officer, Mr. Endy. A meeting with him was often regarded with foreboding, but he was always willing to give a "lift" to students who had difficulty in getting to school.

NURSE

This past year Mrs. Grace Hogue served as school nurse at Muhlenberg. Mrs. Hogue gave first aid to students who were in need of it. Some of her duties were advising pupils in regard to health problems and excluding pupils from school who had symptoms of communicable diseases. The nurse also assisted the doctor in the annual health examinations.

The Senior Class officers: President (top left), Gerald Hain; Vice President (top right), Glenn Stech; Secretary (bottom left), Dyanne Kunsman; Treasurer (bottom right), Judith Spatz.

CLASS MOTTO:

Toil is our road; success our destination.

CLASS COLORS:

Cardinal Red and Pearl Gray

TYPICAL TEENS

You're typical teens—making fun from work—sharing your interests—liking slacks and bermudas, but being able to change to suits and heels to meet any “dress” occasion.

You're typical teens—going steady, dressing up, when forced to—driving, and relying on the family car to do your walking. You eat snacks and see the inside of a diner more than your own home. You enjoy television and radio but simply cannot do any bit of homework without the aid of a favorite “disk.”

You're typical high school students—enjoying many sports—while holding a job, which leaves you little, if any spare time, and even less time for that long awaited school work, which will no doubt be due very, very soon.

Your daily schedule is a familiar pattern—you may get up at dawn and enlist in a service known as “Dawn Patrol,” or if you are “unlucky,” you may sleep till 7:30—you may “never” oversleep but just might “undersleep”—you arrive at school a little more tired and spent than the day before—you rush, rush, rush and sooner or later lunch time rolls around—you now are given 28 minutes to eat, drink, and speak those hidden thoughts that no one other than your best friend should know—The bell rings all too soon and you're back again to the old grind—your afternoon flies and soon it's time for that extracurricular activity you've been waiting for.

Your grades denote “genius,” well, average anyway, and you seem to be well satisfied for all in all you are just a typical teen in M.T.H.S. in 1960.

SENIORS WILL ALWAYS REMEMBER

Not all days were as tiring as this one, but on student teacher day, both feet and minds were overworked and over-tired.

Schedules of the active fans and participants of our sports events often conflicted. A good example is this cross-country meet, and occurring at the same time, a girls' hockey game. A smart fan could have, of course, found a seat close-by both and enjoyed both sports.

Extracurricular activities have always kept the students from trouble. John Herbine, as well as these other seniors, seems to be enjoying a fast game of bowling. After the close of a local sweet shop and the opening of a local bowling alley, teachers as well as students could be found forming teams and leagues.

THEIR SCHOOL DAZE

Assemblies were always fun, especially for the students. This assembly shows our "big-game hunter" David Walton and Dennis Rahn, as they "hunted" while hunting lions and leopards in the "safari".

Bonfires always included our homecoming games. Perhaps somewhere within the last three years we didn't win the following game but we sure were noisy the night before.

Styles changed for the male members of our student body as well as for the female section. Cerry Hain was the first to sport the new clam diggers but the fad soon became familiar to both girls and boys.

So seniors another year is brought to a close. It is now time "to put the lid on" our fun-filled school years. Together we have worked, played, yes, and even learned, but don't fret, Judy Spatz, all good things must come to an end, and next year our junior friend, Denny Stein, will be saying good-bye.

Sandra Englehart, Virginia Greer, and Diane Rohrbacher

FIELD MARSHAL: Sandra Englehart

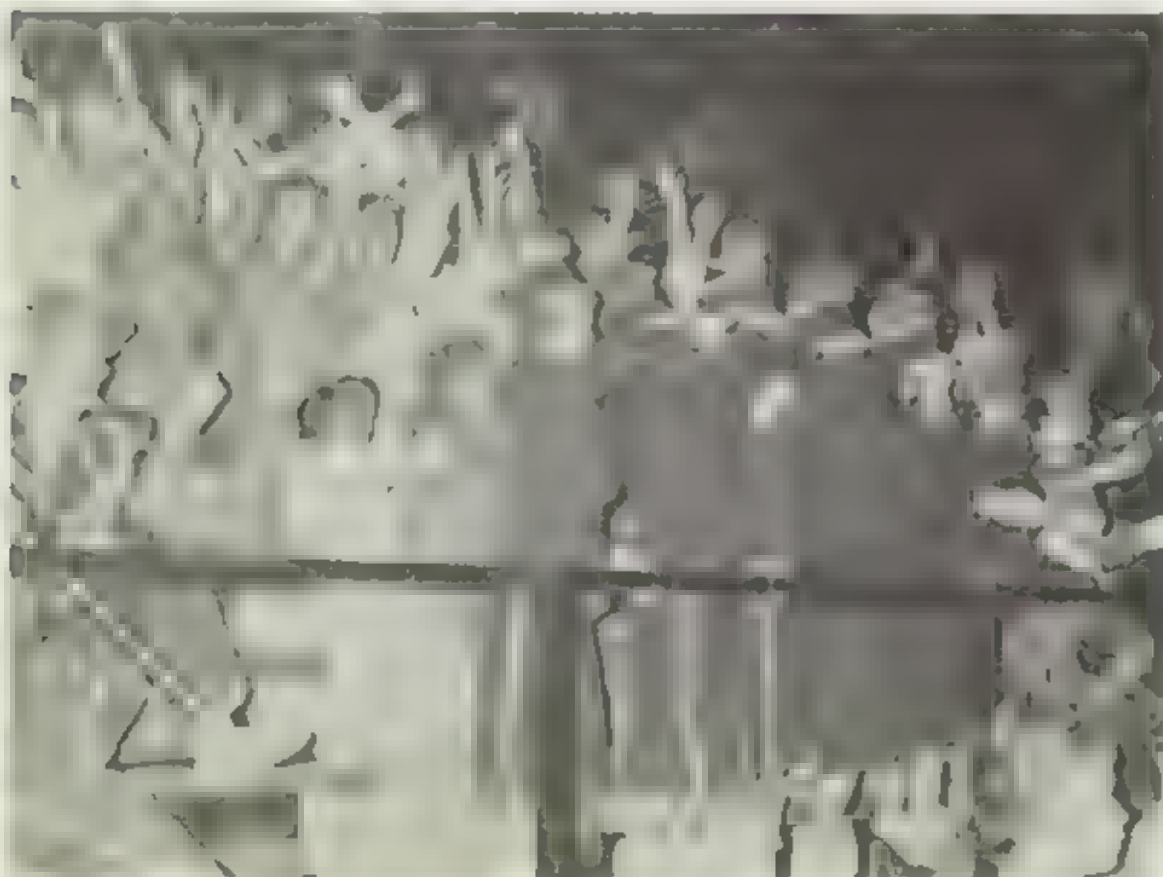

ADVISER
Mr. Quentin R. Keath

The majorettes were very busy this year performing at football games, shows, and parades. They rose early in the morning to rehearse and sometimes also stayed after school.

Their shows included dancing, comedy, and singing numbers, in addition to marching and twirling.

The majorette group was composed of 32 girls with Sandra Englehart as Field Marshal. Diane Rohrbacher was Band Majorette and Claire Cleaver and Faye Haeseler were baton and flag twirling leaders respectively.

The seven tenth-grade majorettes were under the leadership of Diann Schmauder. Mr. Keath is faculty director of majorettes.

HORIZON CLUB, STAGE CREW, HALL PATROL SERVED;

The name of the national senior organization of Camp Fire Girls is Horizon Club, signifying the desire to go forward to ever-challenging goals.

Some of the projects which this group has undertaken have been cake sales, a car wash, making Christmas wreaths, service projects for the school, presenting an assembly program, and a trip to New York City.

The group consists of 30 girls in 11th and 12th grades. Miss Kiesling and Mrs. Daniel Rothermel are advisers.

OFFICERS: Joan Gartman, Jeanette Sanders, Johanna Sanders, Diane Rohrbacher, Doris Wary, Jacquelyn Kieffer.

STAGE CREW—SEATED: Andrew Johnson, Mr. Marth. STANDING: Gary Frank, Paul Holland, Raymond Cherke, John Davis, Donald Gardner, Douglas Brown.

Members of the stage crew are the men behind the scenes at Muhlenberg. They took part in all the assemblies and other programs.

The original sound effects and especially the lighting may have been the "brainstorm" of any one of these "geniuses." Most of this was done as the program was going on.

They have bought various pieces of technical equipment with the profits they received from presenting motion pictures.

Stage crew is under the supervision of Mr. Olin Marth.

BUSY FINGERS WORKED IN TYPING CLUB

The purpose of Hall Patrol is to keep order in the halls during passing of classes. The group was selected from the senior boys. They stood at their posts in the halls and at congested stairways between classes, and in the corridor leading to the cafeteria before the lunch periods. Mr. Spancake is the adviser of hall patrol.

Typing club is designed for students who wish to learn to type, but cannot include typing in their schedule as a regular subject. In this organization these students received typing instruction and got typing experience. Students who had typing as a regular subject could also become members, if they were interested in additional typing practice. The club met during the activities period on Wednesdays. Mr. Imboden is the adviser.

MIXED CHORUS ROSE EARLY, AND SAN

ACCOMPANISTS: Linda Potteiger, Anita Jones, and Suzanne Seidel.

Mixed Chorus consists of 100 early risers known as the "dawn patrol." They performed at churches in the community and at a local department store during the Christmas season.

During the year at school they vocalized in assemblies, the major one being the Christmas assembly.

The rules and regulations of chorus are very strict. If a member was late for a rehearsal three times it was considered one absence. Three absences meant expulsion from the organization.

MIXED CHORUS FIRST ROW Sandra Broomfield, Linda Rotenberg, Mary Ellen Seidel, Ellen Bachman, Linda Potteiger, Judy Spatz, Karen Oventord, Doris Wary, Virginia Greer. AT LOCAL STORE, CHURCHES, AND CONCERT.

Each spring the mixed chorus presents a concert under the direction of Miss Alta Horton, vocal music instructor.

The material sung this year by mixed chorus ranged from popular and standards to religious and spiritual pieces.

Rehearsing at 7:30 a. m. may sound like an extremely hard schedule for busy students, but all chorus members will agree that it was certainly worth the effort.

Miss Alta Horton, Directress

FOOTBALL

For the first year, Muhlenberg footballers played in a league, the Tri-County league and football season at Muhlenberg High provided thrills, chills, and contact galore, with the marching unit handling the school spirit aspect of the game. Most of the Muhls' home games were played in the spacious confines of beautiful Municipal Stadium. These pages hold the memory of an important touchdown, the prolific figure of Mr. Stefl, our esteemed coach, and other highlights of Muhlenberg's autumn sports parade.

TENNIS

This year, the tennis squad was coached by Mr. Olin Marth, and even though the Muhls didn't win the Davis Cup, they will never forget the good, clean fun that they had as Muhlenberg netmen.

CROSS COUNTRY

Speeding along the horizon are Lee Braun, Jan Phillips, Roger Behrenhauser, Jay Abramowitch, Andrew Prydybasz, Robert Snyder, Andrew Johnson, Muhlenberg harriers.

Over hill, over dale, as they hit the dusty trail, and the harriers go running along. Despite sidestitches, abdominal pains, faltering limbs, and loss of breath, the distance men press on, combining bodily stamina and intestinal fortitude, and enjoying cross country.

CHEERLEADERS

Who were the girls whose presence forced the students to rock the roof at pep rallies? Who, after everyone had given up, yelled loud and clear, proclaiming the chance of victory? Yes, each cheerleader represented the spirit and sportsmanship that Muhlenberg is proud to call her own.

Why should these girls have lost their voice, composure, and fingernails for the sake of a school victory? They made these sacrifices because they wanted to contribute to every victory.

The cheerleaders were an intimate part of every team, for they represented the inspiration that forced desire and the fulfillment of potentials in every player.

Ike has nothing on Muhlenberg High, for while our putt minded president is chipping them on the White House lawn this spring, Mr. James Brokenshire and his 18-hole maniacs are out on Pleasant Hill golf course fighting sun stroke and sky-high scores.

Even though golf is only a minor sport, there are always enough participants to field a team. Each year Muhlenberg golf addicts hike from hole to hole enjoying their favorite sport. The lone returning letterman this year is Stu Adams, and Mr. Brokenshire will undoubtedly be scouting the miniature golf courses for the talent to comprise a winning team. "Fore."

James Klemmer hurls the shot-put

In track, sprinters work on their starts and distance men must acquire the endurance necessary to be a winning miler. To throw the shot-put, javelin, or discus, the track participant must develop a definite form, and build on his distance from day to day through concentration and practice. As soon as basketball ends, the tracksters are out in the freezing wind, getting in shape for the upcoming season.

Muhlenberg track and field teams are drilled by Mr. Paul McLaughlin, a teacher at C. E. Cole Junior High School and Mr. Jay Schmitt, who is also a faculty member at Cole. The track meets are conducted on the Muhlenberg athletic field. The programs consist of individual running events, weight competition, the high jump, the hurdles, the javelin throw, and relay races, to name a few.

Hustle, determination, and ability afford an accurate description of a basketball team that Muhlenberg will never forget. Mr. Robert Steinmetz is the man who made them click, for in his initial year, the admirable coach led the basketeers to victories galore.

Charlie Ebbert, a sophomore, started several games, an accomplishment to be cherished. Each man played his part in the pattern of winning, and represented Muhlenberg in regal Blue and Gold fashion.

The hockey team and its fans watch the game with much enthusiasm.

At Muhlenberg, the weaker sex takes an active part in the athletic program during the year. They play hockey and basketball teams on the county wide level, and their intramural activities include basketball and volleyball. Miss Marjorie Hodgkins, gym and health instructress, handles these sports as well as athletic-minded organizations.

Hockey is no soft sport by any means, and girls' basketball, despite the variations, requires a great deal of proficiency. So, watch out, boys, your girl friend may be a wrestler.

MUHL'S SNAP STREAKS OF

KUTZTOWN BOWS MUHL'S CORRAL

Muhlenberg proved that winning streaks were established to be broken by ending very impressive strings of victories accumulated by West Reading's Cowboys, and the Cougars from Kutztown.

The latter came in the third game of the season at the C. E. Cole battleground. Much to the surprise of the fans from both teams, the highly favored Cougars could not build a substantial lead. A tied regulation game led to an exciting overtime period that saw the Kutztown array lose to a hustling, defense-minded Blue and Gold quintet.

The Muhls, playing a similar brand of ball, brought a West Reading thirty-four game streak to an abrupt end by besting the scrappy Cowboys, 66-64 at Cole.

ATHLETIC ADDITION

Gorgeous George has nothing on Muhlenberg, for this year our school has initiated a wrestling program for team competition. The plans for the future foretell a league consisting of Berks County schools, but for the time being, a developing process of trial contests was arranged.

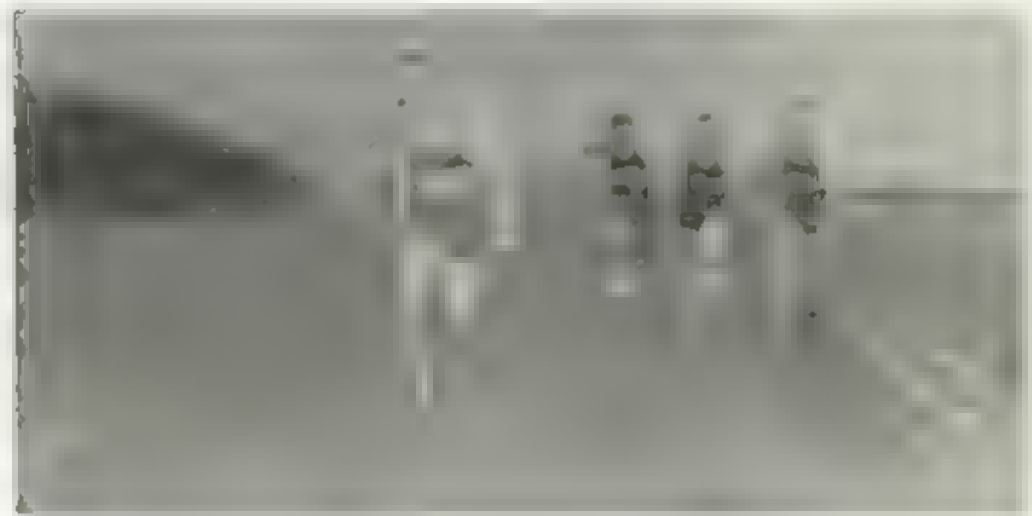

The grapplers, under the guidance of Mr. Olin Marth, learned the fundamentals of legitimate wrestling, not to be confused with the rock and roll that is seen on television.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

The annual junior-senior prom of 1959 was held on June 11, from 8 to 12 p.m., at the Reading Country Club.

The girls arrived dressed in beautiful gowns and the boys in tuxedos. The couples whirled around the dance floor to the music of The Tillman Fisher Orchestra.

After the dance the seniors had an all night party at the Temple Inn. A full length movie was shown and breakfast was served.

CLASS PLAY, "REST ASSURED"

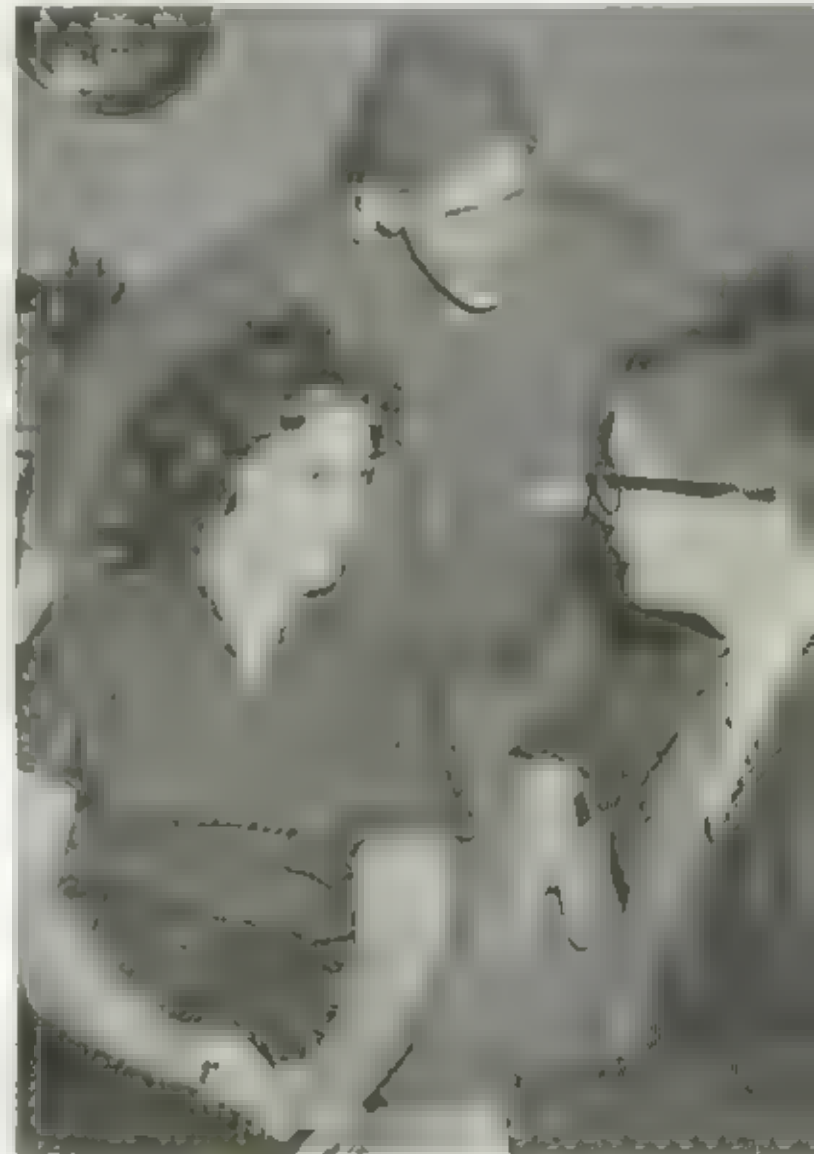

Rest Assured, the senior class play of 1959, was directed by Mr. Glenn H. Woods. It was held in the high school auditorium on November 22 and 23, at 8 p. m.

The story concerns a grouchy middle-aged man, Mr. Morlock, who puts wealth before his family. He won't permit his daughter to marry the son of a meat cutter. Arguments start between both families and the meat cutter "dies" of a heart attack. His "spirit" comes back to haunt Mr. Morlock and finally he "dies." When he is "dead" he learns how ugly he has been to his family and promises to do better if he is given another chance. But it was all just a dream. Mr. Morlock okays the wedding and peace finally reigns over the Morlock household.

And away we go!

THE JUNIOR CLASS PLAY SHOWS

Shall we dance? Diane Rohrbacher and Sandra Ohnmacht try and help Donna Williams, while Judith Spatz just watches.

The junior class play, entitled "Tish," by Alece Chadwick was presented on March 20 and 21, 1959, in the high school auditorium.

Mr. Glenn H. Woods was director of the play and under his supervision the 13 members of the cast were chosen.

Playing the title role in "Tish" was Donna Williams, who was a middle-aged spinster, outspoken and possessed a youthful spirit.

Sandra Ohnmacht and Diane Rohrbacher portrayed two of "Tish's" close friends.

Ellen, who ran the Eagle Hotel and who was on the verge of losing it when "Tish" and her friends arrived, was portrayed by Judith Spatz.

The story is mainly about "Tish," how she kept Ellen from losing her hotel, and the comical adventures which follow.

TISH

THAT SOME STUDENTS ARE BORN COMEDIANS.

The junior class play of 1960 was entitled "The Little Dog Laughed." It was under the direction of Mr. William E. Abramowicz.

"The Little Dog Laughed" is a comedy in three acts which deals with the lives of Laure Huntington and her family. She is a psychology major, who comes home from college expecting to find a normal family, but finds a "bunch of psychological knots." Her father is a used-car dealer who is afraid his much-needed bank loan won't go through.

Her mother is over-anxious and nervous about a tea to which she has invited the wife of the bank president. Her brother insists on going "steady" with the daughter of his father's rival.

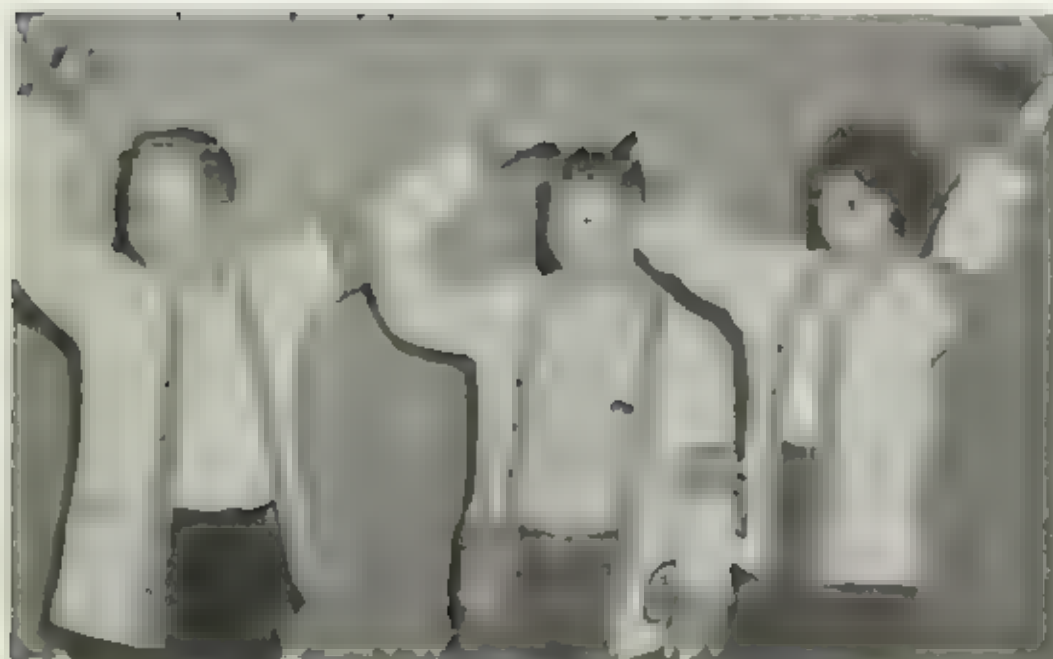

Miss Gustavesky, a part-time helper around the house, is interested in a bird fancier and taxidermist.

Darryl Smith, Luther Kauffman, and Jay Spancake, live it up by doing the "Can Can."

Clifford Nevin and Jay are having a battle, while Ruthann Shaver, Joyce Mattia, Luther, and Darryl look on.

Jay, Luther, and Darryl are at it again. Here they demonstrate a new kind of dance.

Isn't romance wonderful? Claire Cleaver and Cliff Nevin from a scene in the play.

MUHL REVUE AND READING FAIR

The annual Muhl Revue was held in the high school auditorium April 25 and 26, 1959.

The Muhl Revue is a variety show consisting of pantomimes, solo and group dancing, comedy skits, solo and group singing, walk-ons, commercials, and on the street interviews.

This was a big affair at Muhlenberg and it drew a large crowd both nights.

James Scaltz was master of ceremonies and Linda Wolf and Nancy Endy were the lovely pages. Jimmy made a booming entrance on a little two-wheeler bicycle at the beginning of the show.

It was a madhouse behind stage before curtain call and between performances. Every one rushed around getting changed into their costumes and waiting tensely. All the performers were told to be very quiet, but you might say they were—loudly quiet.

Muhlaires sang Stormy Weather and Mood Indigo and Muhlteers sang Tumbling Tumbleweed.

Charles Coco did a novelty dance in which he used his stomach as a head. He danced to the Happy Whistler.

Isn't it cute? Here's Eddie Coco doing a novelty dance.

CREATE FUN FOR THE STUDENTS

Boy, is that good!

All of the Muhlenberg students were excused for a day, to enjoy themselves at the Reading Fair.

Even though the fair is practically the same every year, the students still enjoyed themselves to the fullest. Some of the students went to the fair every night it was open.

You could see boys and girls walking by, eating cotton candy, trying to win teddy bears, and taking rides on all the mechanical devices.

One night a gang of Muhlenberg students locked hands, made a long train, and paraded up the midway singing songs and dancing. It really was fun for those participating.

Another night you might have seen many students sitting and standing in the grandstand to see Fabian.

Two Muhlenberg students had a private interview with Fabian and thought he was just "great."

Zaggy Gregoris and Doreen Fick seem to be having fun on the merry-go-round. Don't hide, Wally Weber!

It's "Fabulous Fab" all right. Fabian was at the Reading Fair for three days.

Who won, girls? Marcia Hackerty, Sandy Englehart, Virginia Smith, Linda Rothenberger and Joan Garman try their luck at bingo.

MAY QUEEN AND HER COURT

ARE PANIC-STRICKEN ON MAY DAY

The May Queen and her court were chosen this year by the sophomores, juniors, and seniors. The court consisted of the May Queen, Maid of Honor, and ten senior girls. Each student was given a sheet of paper with all the senior girls' names on them, and was told to vote for one girl only.

May Day was held May 2, and it began at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Before the procession began, the girls were all rushing around getting dressed in their formal gowns and putting make-up on, while their escorts waited for them.

All the rushing must have done some good, because the girls looked beautiful as they walked slowly with their escorts to the side of the queen's platform. The queen took the seat of honor on the platform, decorated with beautiful flowers. The maid of honor crowned the queen with a lovely crown of sweet-smelling flowers.

Then students performed dances and songs in front of our queen and her court, accompanied by Blue Band. Muhlares sang a selection and junior girls did the annual maypole dance. The recessional then took place.

STUDENTS WERE PROUD

Charles Coco, Marcia Hackerty, and Virginia Greer were Muhlenberg's Eastern District Chorus members.

Paul Bard received an award for County Football and Dennis Fick received one for Tri-County.

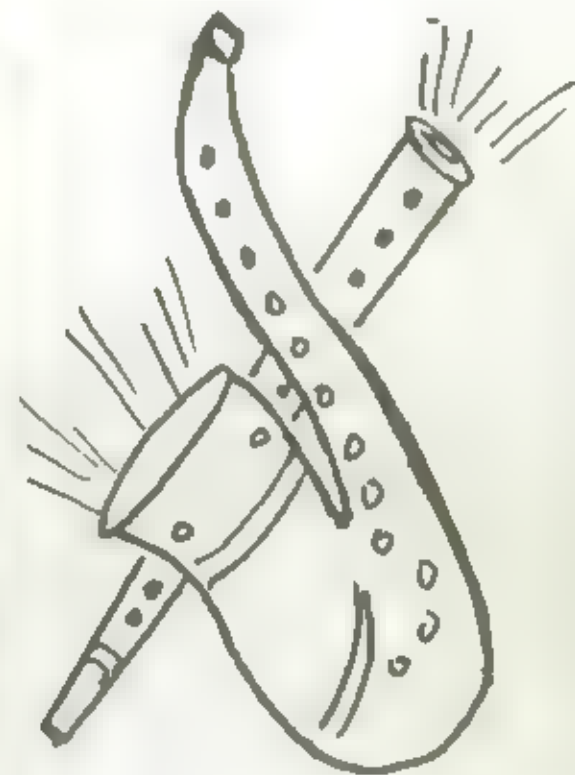

Charles Coco and Virginia Greer were members of State Chorus this year.

DISTRICT CHORUS STATE CHORUS COUNTY BAND COUNTY AND TRI-COUNTY FOOTBALL

Robert Kline, Roger Behrenhausen, Warren Weber, Thomas Falkowicz, and Alan Knepp were selected to be members of county band.

TO BE IN COMPETITIVE ACTIVITIES

Carlene Schaeffer, Cathy Rothermal, Eddie Coco, Bob Kline, Bruce Miller, Linda Pottleiger, Virginia Greer, Sandy Wertz, Marcia Hackerty, and Pat Mehle are all members of county chorus. Sandy Englehart is missing from the picture.

This year county chorus and county band gave their annual concert, December 12, in the Brandywine Heights High School, Topton. County Band accompanied county chorus and later gave a concert of their own.

The Eastern District Chorus gave its concert January 9, at 8 p. m. It was held in the Nazareth High School in Nazareth, Pennsylvania.

District band members tried out at Reading High School for their concert to be held on a later date.

State chorus members gave their concert at Kingston, Pennsylvania, January 31. A dance was held for them on Friday night, January 28, and a banquet Saturday night.

Color Guard eagerly participated at football games and at the Reading Fair.

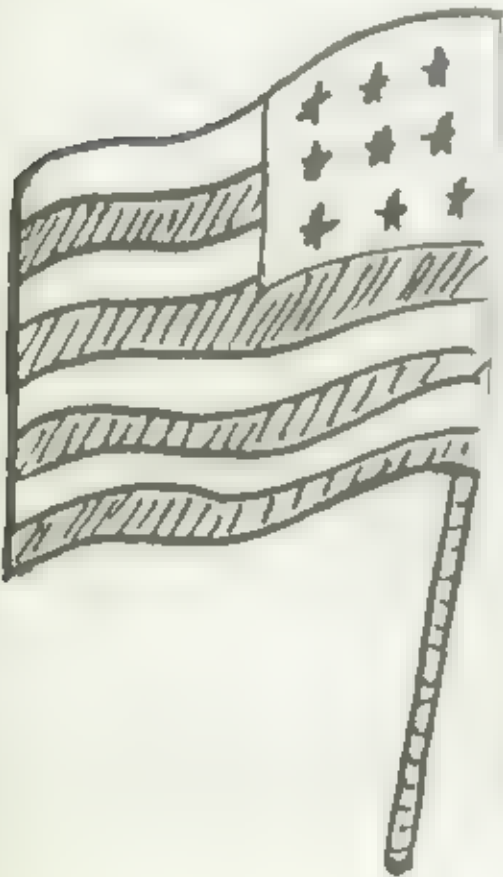

Paul and Denny were proud to receive awards for county football.

JANUARY WELCOMES THE NEW YEAR

January is the first month to begin the new year. The excitement of the holidays is wearing off and people are beginning to adjust to their normal ways of living. At Muhlenberg, league basketball is added to the month's activities, but the girls, too, have their games. This year G.A.A. sponsored a novelty dance, the "Hong Kong Hop," whose name amused many people. Two other things noted to come around January are the Student Council election and mid-term report cards.

This enthusiastic crowd is watching the Muhls take another basketball victory

FEBRUARY BRINGS WINTER CHEER

This includes, among all things, ice skating or some other sport which needs a last-minute snow. But most of all, February is looked forward to by the yearbook staff. Their deadline has finally arrived and after this month is over, they will have no more worries. Another important thing people remember about February is Ground Hog Day. Even if this little fellow does see his own shadow, don't worry, because February is the last winter month.

Look out, boys, 1960 is leap year and it's all because of the month February. For being such a short month, February is filled with various activities. Valentine's Day brings the annual dance sponsored by Y-Teens, this year called the "Heartbeat." Many look forward to this month to see the well-known majorette assembly, which always is a good show. Others look forward to it because it is usually the last month to have fun with winter activities, for spring is just around the corner.

(Center, right) Beverly Hull, Patricia Wollung, and Ellen Bachman take part in the Horizon Club play for assembly.

IN MARCH THE COLD WINDS BLOW

March winds do blow bringing spring fever to everyone and in many cases cupid, too, takes over. Students begin to feel freedom and wish to be outdoors instead of working diligently inside. Green is definitely the color as Saint Patrick's Day rolls along. The junior class presents their class play, this year being The Little Dog Laughed. The sophomores always sponsor the "Soph Hop" in this month. Sport enthusiasts start warming up for the coming weeks. March is a big month for beginning this new season just right.

APRIL RAIN MAKES FLOWERS GROW

Dennis Stein and Luther Kauffman perform in the Muhf Revue

"April showers bring May flowers" is a familiar expression known by all. Although it does rain often in April, there are also many brighter days, such as April Fool's Day. Everyone looks forward to this day so that they can play pranks on their friends. Easter, too, generally falls in this month. Dress-up day and a religious assembly is held to celebrate this holiday. Baseball and the other spring sports are now under way and the athletic field is often filled with spectators after school. Other features of this month are the "Muhf Revue" and student-teacher day.

SUNNY DAYS COME IN MAY

Miss Alta Horton directs the singing of Mixed Chorus during the Spring Concert.

A scene from a typical May Day.

The month that is really full of activities is May. New fashions are modeled in the annual fashion show, and the Spring Concert, which is given by Mixed Chorus, is beautiful to young and old. The highlight of the month is the crowning of the May Queen and the appearance of her court, bringing also the May Queen Festival and fun for everyone.

JUNE BRINGS GRADUATION DAY

Marcia Helms tries her hand at playing cricket.

The time that is long awaited by students all over is the month of June. Final examinations and the close of school brings thoughts of the coming summer. For the seniors it means the prom, class trip, baccalaureate services, and the ritual of commencement, which they go through with unhappy hearts.

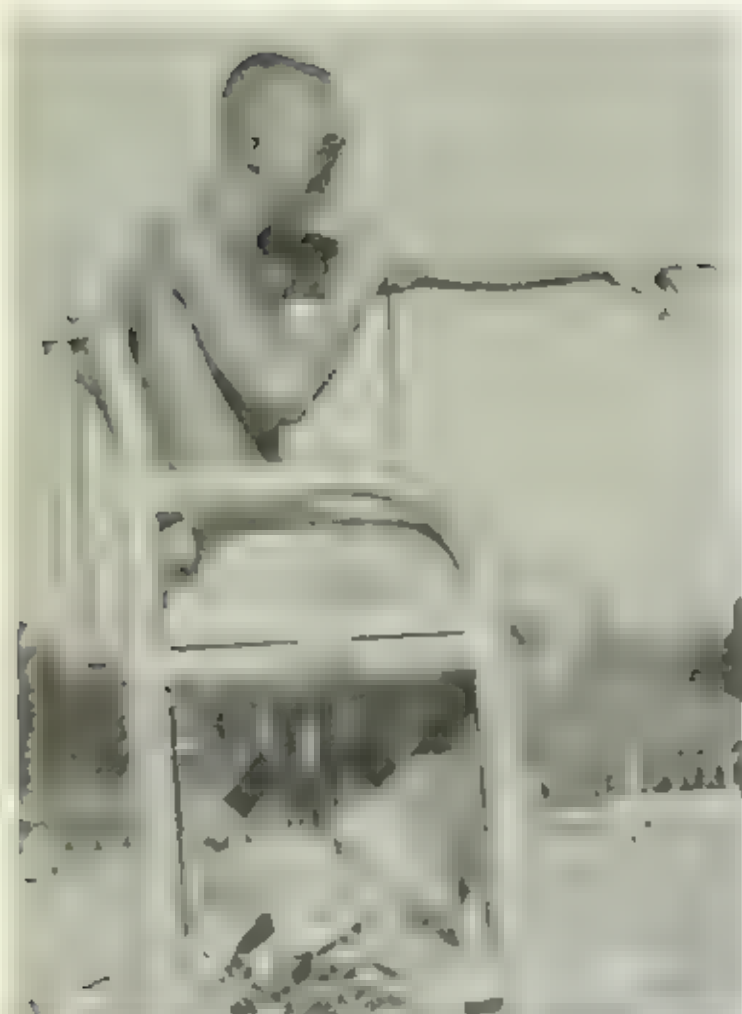

Two seniors take a last look at their diploma.

JULY'S DAYS ARE USUALLY HOT

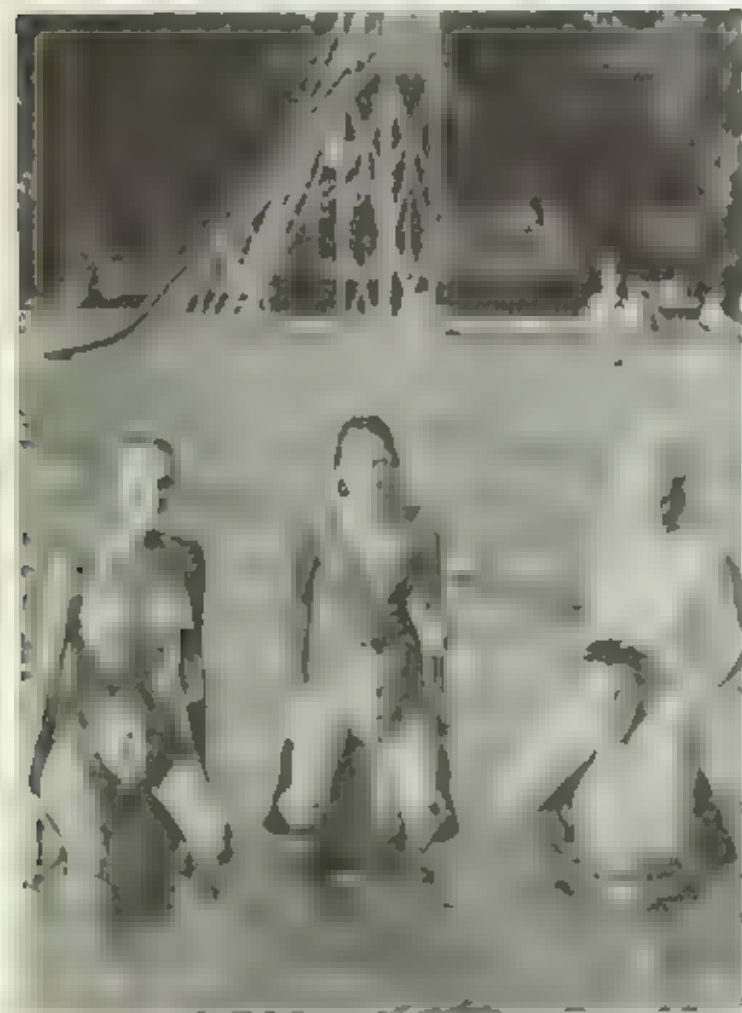

The disk jockeys spin records at the Optimist Club dances, which are heard over the radio.

The highlighted month of the summer is July. Teenagers all over spend their days bustling with activity or loafing, and some are ambitious enough to get jobs. Pools, tennis courts, and many other familiar places are crowded with fun loving people. Evenings are spent at drive-in movies, barbecues, and dances. All in all, July is the ideal summer month.

IN AUGUST THE SHORE IS A FAVORITE SPOT

August is the month which brings the summer season to a rapid close. Many people take vacations to the shore, while others prefer to have parties or gather in groups at favorite places such as the local bowling alley. Talk of school, which is soon to begin, is heard almost everywhere, and the football players, filled with an eager desire to win, toil daily in the sun. This all means that the autumn season is soon to commence.

SEPTEMBER SENDS YOU BACK TO SCHOOL

Judith Spatz and Jeanette Goss watch Fabian at the Reading Fair.

School is usually the first thing that comes to mind when one mentions September. Our term starts soon after Labor Day, but we have our first vacation about two weeks later. This is the time everyone goes to the Reading Fair. Walking the midway, watching the stage shows, riding the amusements, or just plain eating are some of the activities enjoyed by students. In September our fall sports also begin, which includes girls' hockey. Every night after school you will see our athletes practicing hardily. September is the month for starting school off right.

This year our money making project, the magazine drive, got under way in October. The profits were used for various organizations and other school needs. October was also the month when the Observer staff staged their assembly. This is usually a variety show given to tell the students about the school publications and to promote sales. The seniors looked forward to this month because they received their class rings. The annual bonfire, too, was fun for all. Everyone paraded through the streets of Laureldale and returned to the school where the first fire was lit; everyone joined in on the pep rally.

THANKSGIVING DAY FALLS IN NOVEMBER

November is usually known for Thanksgiving Day. On the day before Thanksgiving vacation, the well-known turkey is served in the cafeteria. A religious assembly is also presented to the students to keep with the real thought of Thanksgiving, being thankful for their many blessings. This past November, the senior class play, Rest Assured, was presented. Report cards and open house were other features of this month. Open house is a time set aside for parents to visit the teachers at school. This occurs during American Education Week. The big school events of the month were the homecoming football game and the Varsity Drag.

HOLIDAY GAIETY COMES WITH DECEMBER

December is the month when every person's heart is filled with the joy of Christmas spirit. The city is bright with colorful lights, decking the streets and buildings. Homes are buzzing with excitement as families prepare for the coming holidays. At school, the students decorate their doors and homerooms, for they too are filled with the holiday spirit. On the day before Christmas vacation, everyone wears their Sunday best to school and a religious assembly is held in keeping with the true meaning of Christmas. The "Holly Hop" is another event many people look forward to each year at this time. Basketball season also begins in this gay month.

COLE'S FACULTY CONSISTED OF

ROBERT D. SHIPE, JR., Principal
B.S., Albright College
M.Ed., Temple University

Theodore Roosevelt once said, "There are two kinds of success. One is the very rare kind that comes to the man who has the power to do what no one else has the power to do. That is genius. Only a very limited amount of the success of life comes to persons possessing genius. The average man who is successful is not a genius. He is a man who has merely the ordinary qualities that he shares with his fellows, but who has developed those ordinary qualities to a more than ordinary degree."

Most pupils are "average men" with "ordinary qualities," but success in life is not beyond their grasp. The measure of success will depend upon how well, and how early in life, these qualities are developed. You will never be able to begin earlier, nor will you have a better opportunity to prepare yourself. Prepare yourself well, begin now to develop your "ordinary qualities" and many doors will open to you in the future.

THE STAFF

JEAN'S
COUNTY

"DEADLINE" WAS THE KEYNOTE

It took a year to put the Muhltohi yearbook together and it was fun. But we had our troubles too! We recall frenzied moments with Mr. Purdon, as we raced down crowded corridors crying "pictures for yearbook!" Other days found us hoping it wouldn't rain so we could snap Fabian at the Reading Fair, figuring out working schedules, arguing over feature lay-outs, writing copy or "running heads," and worst of all, meeting deadlines. Now, we look back with relief at the worries, disagreements, and sleepless nights.

To the '61 staff we say, "May your yearbook work be as rewarding as ours was."

MR. GLENN H. WOODS, yearbook adviser.

MARCIA HELMS, Editor-in-Chief

Patricia Wollyung, Senior Section Editor, and Lee Braun, Sports Section Editor.

Susan Trout, Feature Section Editor, and Barbara Cregar, Underclassman Section Editor.

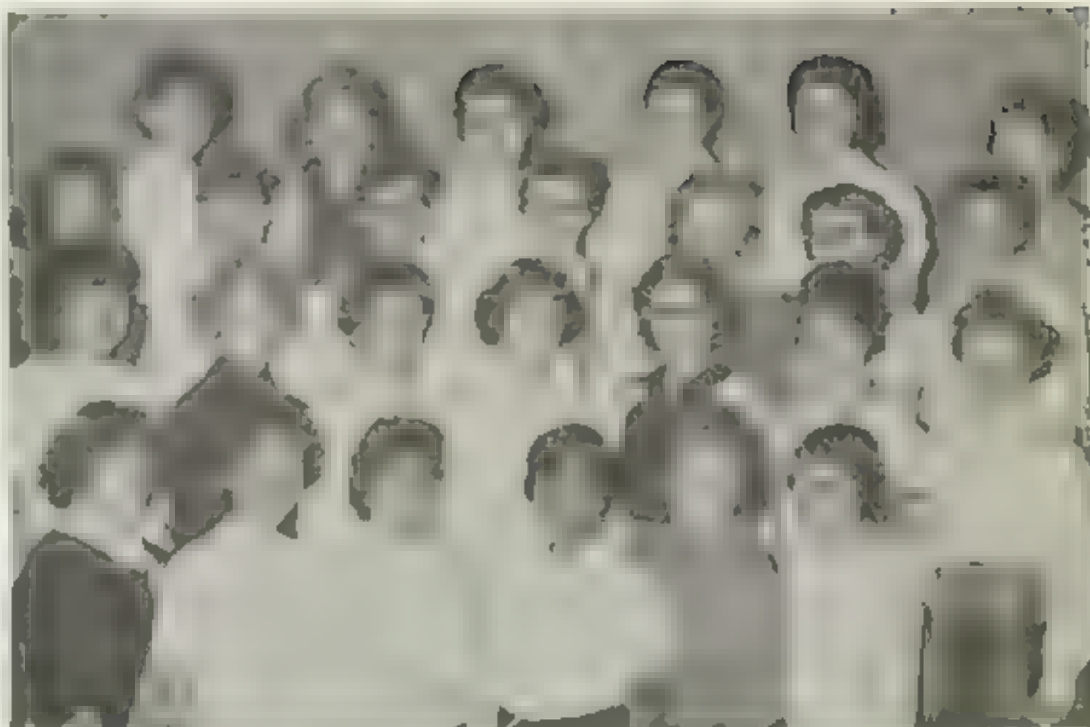

Ellen Bachman, Organizations Section Editor, and Jeanette Goss, Activities Section Editor.
